Dear Robert,

It was a fine program last Sunday — really a remarkable achievement in so short a time this summer.

I urge you to continue the same searching, self-critical study, for, as you develop this next year, that kind of work is the only answer to the question of bringing your extraordinary performing abilities to fruition. You possess a superb God-given talent, a fine mind, and, I truly believe, a sensitive heart for music — use them!

I have enjoyed working with you and I shall miss having your bright and eager presence in my studio this year.

My best wishes for your success at school and consider this an invitation to call on me if you should need anything I can offer in the future.

Affectionately,

Lu Michal'so
