

~~Nov 9 74~~
 27 Apr

By the Council^{rs} for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland &c.

Having ordered the Captain of His Majesty's Ship Lorie to receive on board that Ship at Spithead from 3 to 4,000 Muskets, with a proportionate quantity of Ammunition, and to proceed to the Western Coast of Gallies for the purpose of distributing the same to the loyal Inhabitants of that Province, who are in a state of Hostility with the French Army, putting himself on his arrival on that Coast under your command; We send you herewith Copies of our Orders to Captain Schomberg for

For your information, and do hereby require and direct you to take him under your command accordingly.

Given under our Hands, 28 March 1809

The Honourable George Berkeley, Vice Admiral of the White.

to his Majesty's

Lieutenant

By command of their Lordships,

John Barrow

William Pitt

Palmerston

Mr. Darnley